RE: Notice Under Rule 3010.23(d)(5) (Docket No. RM2016-6)

Dear Mr. Ruble:

39 C.F.R. § 3010.23(d)(5), which goes into effect today, requires the Postal Service to file notice of the "single source" in which it will provide published notice of all mail preparation changes. The Postal Service is presently working to determine which of its publications would best serve this role, or whether it should create a new publication. The Postal Service intends to make this determination shortly and will then notify the Commission.

Best regards,

/s/
